

Amerex Brokers LLC and Employees Donate over $94,000 to ROR

On December 11, 2009, Sugar Land-based Amerex Brokers LLC and its employees showed their support for the U.S. military by presenting nonprofit Rivers of Recovery with a check in the excess of $94,000. This money was raised during the company's Charity Day to benefit veterans and active military soldiers, held this past Veteran's Day.

Amerex President Clay Davis said, "The overwhelming participation of the employees during our Veteran's Day Charity Event reflects a company-wide commitment to supporting our Veterans and active military; especially those making incredible sacrifices for our country."

"We wanted to direct this contribution to nonprofit organizations that are committed to helping veterans and active-duty soldiers recover from combat-related injuries," continued Davis.

Rivers of Recovery, based in Park City, UT, conducts fly fishing, hiking and overnight camping programs for disabled and severely injured military personnel and their families. Its programs seek to instill a connection with nature, bolster self-confidence and rebuild a sense of empowerment. ROR's emphasis on the medical testing and evaluation of its programs has validated recreational therapy as an effective form of rehabilitation.

Rivers of Recovery founder and Executive Director, Dan T. Cook, expressed his gratitude, "We are honored and excited to receive this donation. The generosity displayed by Amerex and its employees is truly extraordinary and our appreciation cannot be overstated. " Cook added "This contribution will allow us to continue to conduct ground-breaking medical research into therapies to treat disabilities such as Post Traumatic Stress Disorder, Traumatic Brain Injury as well as physical injuries."
