GFI GROUP VOTED BROKER OF THE YEAR IN COMMODITIES BUSINESS AWARDS

GFI and subsidiary Amerex voted best in 2011 by market practitioners

New York, November 17, 2011 - GFI Group, Inc. (NYSE: "GFIG") and its subsidiary Amerex Brokers have been voted Commodity Broker of the Year 2011 by Commodities Now magazine in this year's Commodity Business Awards. GFI and Amerex have also been recognised in the Excellence in Renewable Energy Markets category.

The Commodity Business Awards reward those companies that are making a significant impact on the way commodity business is conducted – recognising those institutions making a positive contribution to the development of markets, client responsibility and, ultimately, investor satisfaction.

This is the second consecutive year GFI and Amerex have received the prestigious award.

Colin Heffron, President of GFI Group, said: "We are very happy to receive this important award as recognition of our commitment to providing our clients with the highest quality service and products. Our brokers, sales people, our technology and ecommerce teams and all of our staff at GFI and Amerex work hard to offer the best that can be offered in the commodities sector".

The Award process entailed a submission to a panel of editors, from which they selected and drew a list of nominees, where market practitioners (worldwide) were then asked to vote for companies whom they believed deserved recognition and reward for advancing commodity business expertise.

GFI Group and Amerex provide access to global energy and commodities markets including power, natural gas and environmental commodities through a hybrid approach that combines voice brokering with state-of-the-art electronic trading platforms: EnergyMatch® and EnergyMatch® Europe.
